SUMMARY

I am a strategic Data Analyst with experience in supply chain analytics, data science, and business intelligence. Proficient in qualitative and quantitative analysis to improve business performance, utilizing SQL, Python, R, PowerBI, SAP, machine learning & AI, and cloud technologies (Azure, Snowflake) to drive Sales & Operations Planning, supply chain management & sustainability, financial analysis, inventory management, demand planning, logistics optimization, order fulfillment, customer relationship management, and cost-saving strategy. In my role at Siemens Healthineers, I streamlined data processes, automating the ETL pipeline and enhancing forecasting accuracy for a $1M diagnostics segment. I am excited to leverage my analytical, AI technical, and interpersonal skills to develop business efficiency.
